Report Summary

- The retention rate of 70% from spring 2014 to summer 2014 is only 2 percentage points lower than the retention rate of 72% from fall 2013 to spring 2014

Partial rationale –

Unlike the Spring 2014 DREAM Report, the summer 2014 retention rate calculation does exclude the number of graduates, except the number of graduates retained, from the total number of individuals enrolled in spring 2014 by PAS Program. Where applicable, the retention rate calculation does not consider the number of graduates in the percentage retained formula. Such programs are identified by two asterisks ().

For further clarification:

- The total number enrolled (column D) or the revised enrollment number (column H) by PAS program served as the denominator
- The total number retained served as the numerator (column F)

The total number of graduates for spring 2014 was 594
