Cybersecurity Degree
Sample Academic Track

Credits required for graduation: 72

A Cybersecurity degree equips students with a comprehensive skill set and knowledge base that is crucial in today's digital landscape. The degree program focuses on developing practical, hands-on skills that are highly sought after in the cybersecurity industry. This includes proficiency in risk assessment, penetration testing, network security, and incident response.

1 ADMISSIONS

2 TESTING

3 FAFSA APPLICATION

4 ADVISEMENT

5 REGISTRATION

ALBANY
Technical College

Cybersecurity Degree
Sample Academic Track

Credits required for graduation: 72

TERM 1
ENGL 1101 (3)
MATH 1101 (3)
COMP 1000 (3)
CIST 1001 (4)

TERM 2
HUMN 1101 (3)
CIST 1401 (4)
CIST 1601 (3)
CIST 2411 (4)

TERM 3
CIST 1602 (3)
CIST 2601 (4)
CIST 2611 (4)
CIST 1130(4)

Apply for Graduation

TERM 4
SOCI 1101 (3)
CIST 1122 (4)
CIST 2602 (4)
CIST 2612 (4)

Graduation

TERM 5
PSYC 1101(3)
CIST 2613 (4)
CIST 2413(4)
CIST 2414 (4)

ALBANY
Technical College

Cybersecurity

The Cybersecurity field is known for offering competitive salaries due to the increasing demand for skilled professionals to combat cyber threats. Entry-level positions: $50,000 to $80,000 annually. Mid-Level Positions: $70,000 to $120,000 annually. Senior-Level Positions: $100,000 to well over $150,000 annually.

Completing the required 72 credits for graduation in Cybersecurity is a significant step in the right direction for your career. Graduates with a Cybersecurity degree can pursue diverse career paths. Whether working as security analysts, consultants, ethical hackers, or cybersecurity managers, the degree opens doors to a range of roles within various industries.

ALBANY
Technical College

1 APPLY

2 5 SEMESTERS

3

4 GRADUATE

5 BETTER JOB HIGHER PAY