

Masonry Diploma Sample Academic Track

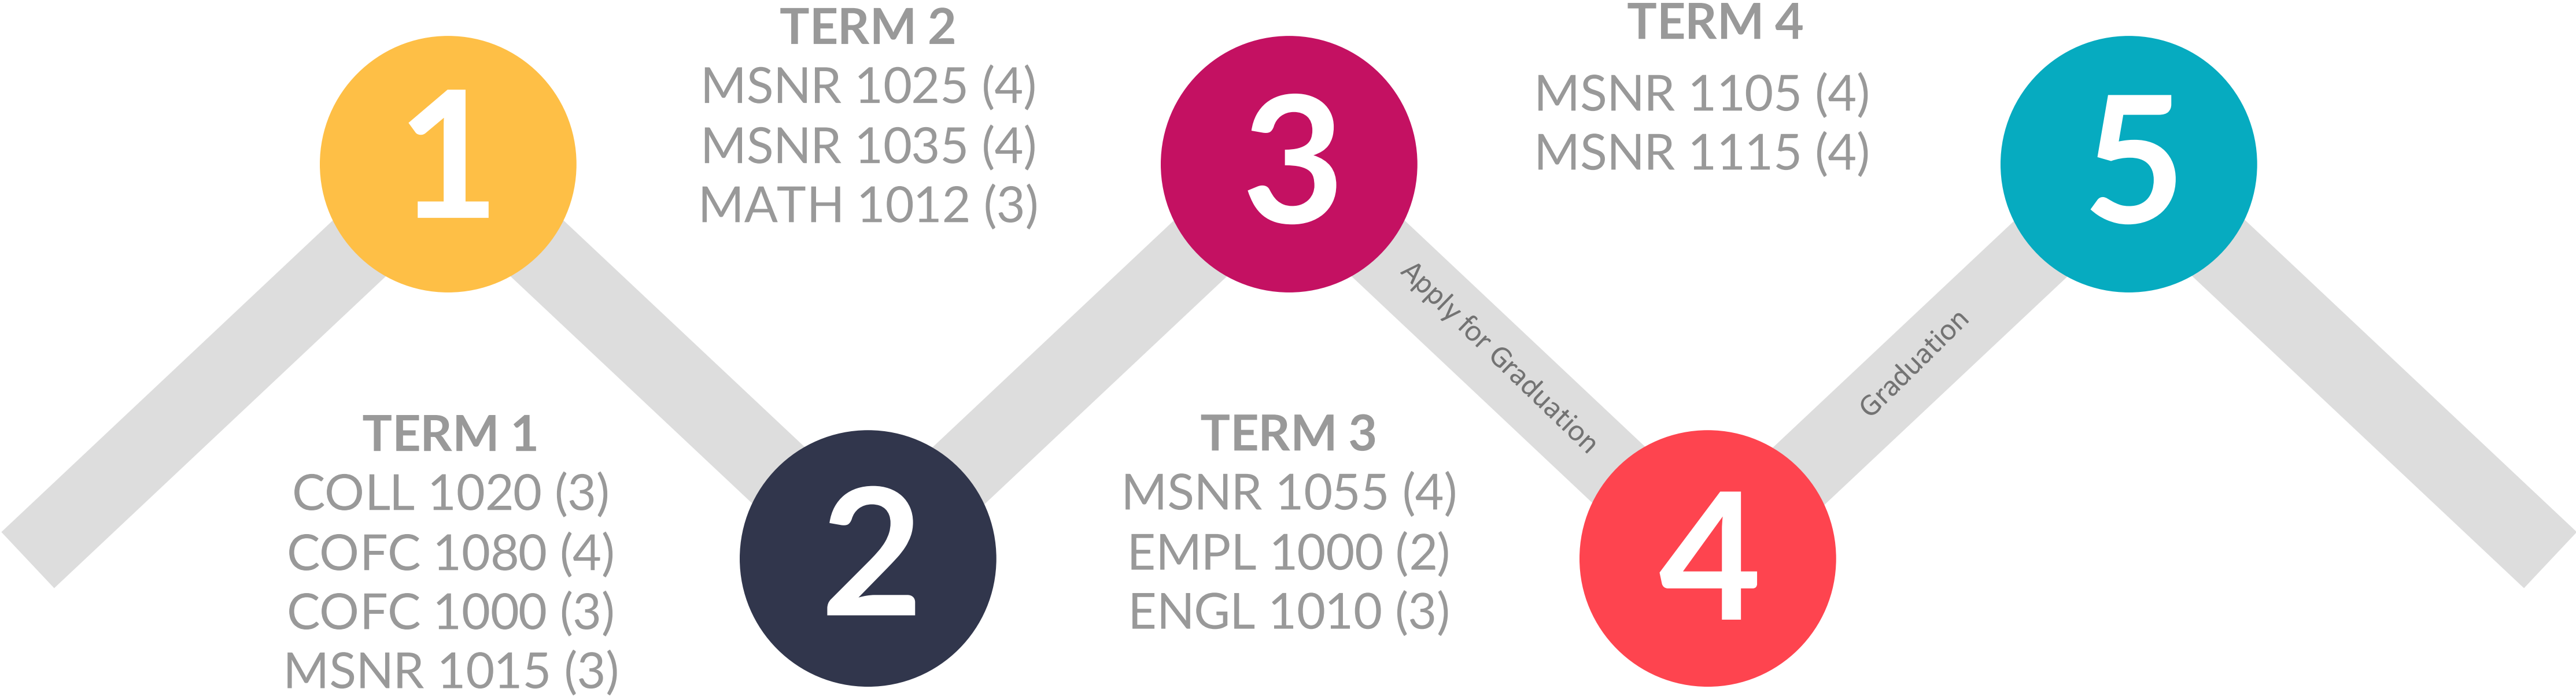

Credits required for graduation: 40

The Masonry Technology diploma molds students into skilled technicians ready for the Masonry industry. It combines academic and technical training for job readiness and advancement, focusing on both Brick and Blocks theory and hands-on practice. Graduates are set to pursue certifications with a comprehensive understanding of Masonry techniques.

Masonry Diploma Academic Track

Credits required for graduation: 40

4 SEMESTERS

Masonry

In the two industries employing the largest numbers of brick masons and block mason in May 2008 – the foundation, structure, and building exterior contractors' industry and the nonresidential building industry median hourly wages were $21.94 and 23.84 respectively.

Completing the required 40 credits for graduation is akin to laying down the fundamental beads of a weld, creating a strong, enduring bond with the industry. Graduates emerge as qualified welding and joining technicians, ready to take on qualification tests that further validate their expertise.

